2014 — 2016

Hard-Soft Skilling- Charting your career path

Major objectives:

- to develop employability through basic high transferable skills acquisition
- to maximize learning potential, encouraging self-reflecting and critical thinking on how to use the hard soft skills to chart their career path, offering tools learners may personalize and use for self - promotion
- to develop awareness of the diversity of the local /national/international labor market and employment opportunities, equipping students with research skills and job searching techniques
- to develop innovative tools to support continuous development of learners' high transferable skills, increasing the students' motivation by encouraging collaboration and experience sharing, fostering creativity and peer assessment
- to support teachers to practice the ability to work in interdisciplinary and multinational teams with a direct impact on teaching quality by sharing methods, strategies, ideas and materials.

The partnership provides the accomplishment of different interactive activities and intellectual outputs, such as:

- ⌘ Comparative study
- ⌘ Optional course syllabus
- ⌘ Employment web directory
- ⌘ Teaching toolkit
- ⌘ Career plan model
- ⌘ Teaching guide
- ⌘ Easy resume creator
